

Jennifer Stanley
Partner
Fenwick & West LLP

Jennifer Stanley is a partner in the Intellectual Property and Technology Transactions Groups and Chair of the Copyright Group at Fenwick & West LLP, a law firm specializing in technology and life sciences matters. Ms. Stanley is resident in the San Francisco office. Her practice concentrates on structuring, drafting and negotiating complex commercial transactions relating to intellectual property, with a particular focus on new media transactions, including video game development agreements (online, offline and mobile), video and user generated content uploading and distribution agreements, copyright counseling, eCommerce counseling, online advertising agreements (advertiser and publisher), social networking, technology development and distribution agreements, inbound and outbound technology license agreements, strategic alliances, and intellectual property issues arising in mergers and acquisitions. Ms. Stanley is a member of the firm's transactional privacy and data security practice, assisting clients to confront and manage the international risks associated with handling consumer and employee information. She also advises clients on the legal issues that arise when running sweepstakes, contests and promotions. Among the clients she has represented are:

- Airbnb, Inc.
- Bioware
- Blue Fang Games
- Cisco Systems
- Greystripe
- Human Head Studios
- Inner Workings
- IronLore Entertainment
- LimeLife
- Next New Networks
- PodTech Network
- Revver
- Stormfront Studios
- Vibrant Media

Ms. Stanley attended law school at University College, Dublin, Ireland, graduating with a Bachelor of Civil Law in 1994. She then attended the Vrije Universiteit De Brussel, Brussels, Belgium, receiving a Masters Degree in International and Comparative Law in 1995. From 1995 to 1996 Ms. Stanley worked at the European Commission in Brussels at the Consumer Technology division (Unit C3) of the European Competition Authority (DGIV). She qualified as a Solicitor in Ireland and worked for Eugene F. Collins Solicitors, Dublin from 1996-1998. She is a member of the Law Society of Ireland, and the California Bar Association.